Step Up Power Breakfast at Bentley

Bentley Beverly Hills at O'Gara Coach welcomed the women of Step Up into its luxurious showroom for a Power Breakfast conversation with Nicole Lapin, finance expert, correspondent and author of Rich Bitch, in partnership with Angeleno.

Guests enjoyed breakfast provided by Bentley Beverly Hills before sitting down to hear CAA Foundation executive Natalie Tran moderate the discussion with Lapin, who shared her take on how to get your financial life together. Guests were also able to view the new collection of handbags designed by Bentley.

Guests then had the opportunity to ask questions during the Q&A, and Lapin shared candid insights on how to live a full and "rich" life. The morning brought together members of Step Up in hopes of inspiring their continued support of the nonprofit, which propels teen girls from LA's under-resourced neighborhoods to fulfill their potential.
